Club Policies

*New/Prospective members may not purchase alcohol from the club until they have been voted in as full members by the membership EXCEPT: during catered events that are open to the public, during private rentals of the hall or pavilion

*Prospective active/assoc. active members may use the club grounds (ranges, pond, hunt, fish, etc.) the same day they apply for membership, pay their dues, and get their receipt. New members must keep receipt with them at all times until their permanent card is received.

*There is a ZERO-TOLERANCE illegal drug policy anywhere on club grounds. Members will be expelled immediately.

*All Active or life members wishing to vote in club elections must attend at least 3 general membership meetings over the course of one year. All active or life members that wish to run for office must attend at least 5 general membership meetings over the course of one year. This policy will be regulated by the financial secretary and trustee.

Your club would like to thank each and every member that has helped out with all the events, parties, dances, breakfasts/3-D shoots, block shoots, trap shoots, fishing contests, leagues, and raffle tickets. Without members like you, the club would not be able to offer these wonderful events
